

April 24, 2007

The Allen Group Promotes Daniel McAuliffe to President of Allen Development of Texas

The Allen Group has promoted Daniel McAuliffe to president of Allen Development of Texas. In his newly appointed position, McAuliffe will manage The Allen Group's Texas operations, including overseeing the development of the Dallas Logistics Hub, with over 6,000 acres master-planned for the development of 60 million square feet of distribution, manufacturing, office and retail uses. McAuliffe will also be responsible for working directly with the BNSF Railway Co., coordinating efforts with local, county and state officials for entitlements and annexation.

www.allengroup.com

