

VF Corporation

I N D U S T R I A L

VISALIA • CALIFORNIA

This million-square-foot distribution and logistics facility located at the MidState 99 Distribution Center serves as the western distribution hub for VF Corporation's Outdoor Apparel unit.

VF Corp. is one of the world's largest apparel companies, with leading brands in jeanswear, intimate apparel, outdoor apparel and equipment, and specialty apparel. Its brands include Lee®, Wrangler®, Vanity Fair®, Bestform®, Lily of France®, Nautica®, John Varvatos®, JanSport®, Eastpak®, The North Face® and Vans®.

This facility features state-of-the-art racking and distribution equipment, 40-foot clear heights, and an additional 200,000 square feet of mezzanine space.

Strategically located in the heart of California, the MidState 99 Distribution Center is midway between population centers Los Angeles and San Francisco. The property is adjacent to Highway 99, a major north-south artery and trucking corridor, and easily accessible by air and rail. From this location, 98% of all California zip codes can be served overnight by UPS ground service.

SIZE: 1,000,000 square feet; 1 story

